Circulation Services Policy

Notices to Return Items- Our ILS system sends notices via email or text to patrons with overdue items at the time an item becomes overdue. Patrons can also login into the online catalog to view due dates. Timely return is the responsibility of the patron, therefore the patron must inform the staff if contact information has changed.

1. Replacement cost plus a $3.00 processing fee per item will be charged for items not returned 2 months after their due date.
2. Refunds will not be made if item is later returned. Library staff will accept replacement items + a $3.00 processing fee per item, if the item(s) are new and equal in value to lost or damaged item it replaces.

Failure to return library materials within two months of its due date constitutes a “Theft of Property” under IA code 714.5 a collection agency or local law enforcement will be employed to recover long overdue materials, totaling $25 or more.

Reserves/Holds: Any borrower may request a hold be placed on a particular item. Once notified (phone message, text or email) the item will be held at the desk for three (3) days before sending it to the next person or returning to the shelf for circulation. Reserves are handled on a first come first serve basis.

Confidentiality of Records: All records are maintained as outlined under Iowa Code 22.7(13). The identity of a borrower and collection materials used/checked out are confidential information. (See Confidentiality Policy). The Library Board of Trustees has designated the Library Director as the lawful custodian (government body currently in physical possession of the public record) of the Library Records as outlined in Iowa Code 22.7 (see Confidentiality Policy) The Library Director has the authority to release the records in accordance with Iowa’s Confidentiality Law.
